DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-9 and 23-34 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Applicant's Appeal Brief submitted September 20, 2006 has been reviewed. Applicant's Brief provides a clear line of demarcation over the prior art. The prior art does not disclose, nor suggest, either alone or in combination, Applicant's method/system et al. features for electronically aggregating information reflecting demand based on input requests from different users for an item, each request having been received from a different user, providing aggregating information to a plurality of suppliers, receiving at least one proposed response and providing a proposed response to each of the different users, with the other recited claim features; electronically aggregating information reflecting demand for a set of travel products, selecting a proposed group travel product based on the aggregated information, providing information reflecting the proposed group travel product to each of the different users; a system for aggregating and satisfying demands from different users for at least one item, a processor, a memory; a computer readable medium containing instructions for controlling a computer system, aggregating information, providing aggregated information, receiving at least one proposed response and providing the proposed response, from claims 1, 2, 4, 5, 7, 8, 29 and 30-32, and the dependent claims 3, 6, 9, 12, 23-28. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

3. A further reference of interest is noted on the attached PTO-892.
